

JOB GUARANTEE @ NAVITAS ENGLISH DARWIN!

For students who study for 10 weeks or more at Navitas English Darwin

Dear Navitas English Partner,

To kick start the New Year, Navitas English Darwin is offering an incredible promotion for students who study for ten weeks or more – they will be offered a guaranteed job! This promotion is available for new and extending General English students and will be available throughout 2011.

The types of work places on offer include: restaurants, bars, hotels, coffee shops, cleaners, farms*, removalists, market stalls, fast-food outlets, supermarkets and more.

Even more attractive is that until March 31st, 2011 this offer can be combined with an additional tropical summer promotion - for every seven weeks you book you can receive an extra week of free tuition!

Navitas English Darwin not only offers an incredible opportunity for students to study and work alongside Australians, but to also have an unforgettable and uniquely Australian experience while developing their language skills, in a friendly, tropical environment.

If you have any questions at all regarding our New Year Darwin promotions, please email me: Marney.Richardson@navitas.com or call direct on my mobile: +61 (0)412 399 041

Terms and conditions:

Students must be an intermediate level of English to participate in this program. Students need to study General English for four weeks at Navitas English Darwin prior to obtaining a job and should not expect to start working immediately upon arrival. Students must be available for work and stay in Darwin for a minimum of three months. A USB with a resume template and job search support document will be provided on arrival at Navitas English Darwin and it is the student's responsibility to ensure that their English resume has been completed by the end of the second week of study. * Farm work only available on completion of course.